Description

Skin repair - stretch marks cream, with organic olive oil, herb extracts and pure essential oils. A powerful natural blend, that preventive helps your skin in the most natural and gentle way to maintain its elasticity and to become more resilient. But it also works corrective, restructuring and skin tightening, with a significant visible reduction in existing stretch marks of any origin.

Use

apply directly onto the skin with light spreads or through massage with light circular movements over the stomach, thighs, bottom and breasts, or any other area where stretch marks occur. It is completely absorbed through the skin therefore it leaves no residue and does not require rinsing. For best results apply 1-2 daily on affected skin for a period of 4-6 weeks. This cream should be used after pregnancy. We recommend that you use the beeswax salve 'Classic' and or Almond oil to prevent stretch marks during pregnancy.
